

THUBTEN DHARGYE LING

A CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF BUDDHISM AND TIBETAN CULTURE

New Classes Begin with Our Resident Teacher

Celebrate with us on this very Auspicious day
A new beginning as our
New Resident Teacher
Venerable Geshe
Phuntsok Gyaltzen
Begins teaching the LamRim, (Stages Of The Path) at
Thubten Dhargye Ling

Sunday
July 25

10:30am - 12:00pm

THUBTEN DHARGYE LING

www.tdling.com

3500 E. Fourth Street
Long Beach, California 90814

Phone: (562) 621-9865

Fax: (562) 621-9061

E-mail: office@tdling.com

We the members and friends of Thubten Dhargye Ling are honored and fortunate to be blessed with having such a high Lama as our New Resident Teacher.

Please join us starting Sunday, July 25th.

Venerable Geshe Phuntsok Gyaltzen was born in Dekhung, Tibet in 1937. At age 11 he was ordained as a monk in Gaden Shartse Norling Monastery.

In 1959, Geshe-la escaped to India after China invaded Tibet. Continuing his studies in the relocated Gaden Shartse Monastery in South India, Geshe Phuntsok Gyaltzen accomplished a Geshe Lharampa degree, the highest degree awarded by the monastery with highest honors in 1985.

A revered teacher of The Sutra Texts at Gaden Shartse Monastery, we are very grateful to Ven. Geshe Phuntsok Gyaltzen for accepting our request to be our New Resident Teacher.